APPLICATION TYPE	DESCRIPTION
$75 Regular	For living male adults 18 years of age and older. This amount includes the $25 application processing fee and first year $50 annual membership fee. Memberships are renewed annually in January for a $50 membership fee. Go to Website STORE to pay New and Renewal fees.
$50 Junior	For male individuals under 18 years of age. This amount includes a one-time $50 application fee. Junior members pay no annual membership fees until they turn 18 years of age. After turning 18, they automatically become a full regular member of the SRT and are then subject to a $50 annual membership fee.
$30 Supplemental	Used to record information for additional qualifying ancestors for an existing SRT member. This amount includes a one-time $30 application fee per supplement.
$150 Posthumous	Used for deceased males who qualify for membership and who lived after the SRT founding on March 30, 1922. These are generally used by families who would like an SRT medallion for their ancestor's gravestone. (Grave marker medallions are available only to current SRT members.)
$1000 Under 18	Lifetime membership for a male individual under 18 years of age. This application also requires a $50 Life Processing Fee if no prior membership.
$750 18-40	Lifetime membership for a male individual who is currently 18 to 40 years of age. This application also requires a $50 Life Processing Fee if no prior membership.
$600 over 40	Lifetime membership for a male individual who is currently over 40 years of age. This application also requires a $50 Lifetime Processing Fee if no prior membership.
$50 Life Processing Fee if no prior membership	This fee is applicable if the Lifetime application is for a new member. Must be a separate check.

About The Qualifying Ancestor

In your own words, enter a summary of what is known about the qualifying ancestor.

Proof of Ancestor in the Republic of Texas

Identify the specific document that proves the qualifying ancestor listed was in the Republic of Texas. Only one document is needed. This document is typically a Mexican Land Grant, tax rolls, census records, or other documents showing the ancestor in Texas prior to February 19, 1846.

About the Applicant

This section identifies the specific documents provided to prove the direct lineage to the qualifying ancestor.

1st Generation (Applicant) – A Birth Certificate is required for the applicant. The document must show the name (mother or father) of whose line is being used to establish direct lineage to a qualifying ancestor.

2nd – 10th Generation – For each generation, identify the one specific individual and the document used to prove the lineage from generation to generation. These individuals must match up to the individuals as listed on the application

PLEASE SUBMIT ONLY ONE SUPPORTING DOCUMENT PER GENERATION WITH YOUR APPLICATION.

Applicant Signature and Notary

The applicant must sign and date the application

For Junior Membership Applications, the child should sign their application if able. Otherwise, the person submitting the application should sign the child's name for them.

Once you fill out your application - print it, and have your signature witnessed by a Notary.

When done, scan your application back to your computer and email it to SRT - aa-srt@son-rep-texas.net

Insert Proof Document
